Our veterans enjoy chatting about their military careers gardening and small boat building. In their early 80s and 90s our veterans are now looking for someone to visit for a chat and to provide companionship.

We are committed to supporting our blind veterans no matter where they are. Our community home visitors provide crucial social interaction for our veterans who can't reach our centres and can often feel isolated or lonely.

By popping by once a week or fortnight to see a veteran in their area home visitors are a friendly face that can make all the difference to our veterans. A visit could be a simple chat and a cup of tea helping out with odd jobs around the home that can otherwise be a struggle for our veterans to complete or getting out and about in the local area. You will never be asked to do any personal care.

Although you will be working in the community independently your manager is only a phone call away and there is a network of other volunteers for you to link in with too. Volunteers must be over the age of 18 years and understand the importance to confidentiality and relationship boundaries. The role can be flexible around your other commitments but we ask that you are reliable and punctual for our veterans. Jemma.Dougherty@blindveterans.org.uk

Can you spare a few hours a week to brighten someone's day? We are looking for a few friendly and active volunteers to visit our Royal Navy veterans in Windsor. Our veterans have backgrounds in aviation and are looking for someone to reminisce with about their military and aviation careers. Having been active all their lives they now look forward to a volunteer who can pop by for a cup of tea and a chat.

We are committed to supporting our blind veterans no matter where they are. Our community home visitors provide crucial social interaction for our veterans who can't reach our centres and can often feel isolated or lonely.

By popping by once a week or fortnight to see a veteran in their area home visitors are a friendly face that can make all the difference to our veterans. A visit could be a simple chat and a cup of tea helping out with odd jobs around the home that can otherwise be a struggle for our veterans to complete or getting out and about in the local area. You will never be asked to do any personal care.

Although you will be working in the community independently your manager is only a phone call away and there is a network of other volunteers for you to link in with too. Volunteers must be over the age of 18 years and understand the importance to confidentiality and relationship boundaries. The role can be flexible around your other commitments but we ask that you are reliable and punctual for our veterans. You will be fully trained and supported so you feel comfortable and confident in your volunteering.

Volunteers need to be over the age of 18 years and able to travel independently to and from our veterans home. Reliability punctuality and trustworthiness are essential requirements for this role as are good listening and interpersonal skills. An understanding of the importance of confidentiality and relationship boundaries is key to this role. We will give you the necessary training induction and support to be confident and enjoy your volunteering.

By providing regular companionship social interaction and building a positive one-to-one relationship you can help to reduce the effects of isolation so commonly experienced by our veterans. Your positivity friendliness and communication can make the world of difference to their day to day lives.

Contact the Elderly: Change an older persons life ... become a volunteer driver.

Contact Debbie Brettle Telephone 07943 903753 Email debbie604@hotmail.com

If you would like to change the lives of lonely older people and have access to a car why not join Contact the Elderly as a volunteer driver for our Maidenhead group. This involves picking up 1-2 older people from their home one Sunday afternoon a month and taking them to a host family for an afternoon get-together. Our guests are over 75 with most of them in their 80s and 90s. They live alone and have little or no contact to friends and family. As you can imagine these monthly outings are the highlight of the month for many of our older guests and for some it is the only time they leave their house for a social occasion. Our motto is - Never let an older person down - and your commitment as a driver is greatly appreciated by the older people. In return you will enjoy Sunday afternoons full of fun and laughter sharing stories over cake and cups of tea. Contact the Elderly groups have 3-5 regular drivers. As a driver you will usually collect the same 1-2 older people each month. Although our members are frail they are able to walk to your car assisted only by a steadying arm. You are not required to do any lifting. We welcome drivers of two and four door cars full driving licence and seat belts are required. Unfortunately we do not pay petrol expenses. Groups usually arrive at the hosts home around 3.00pm and leave about 5.30pm. A different local host is visited each month. Groups usually meet on the same Sunday of each month with the dates set well in advance. Your group co-ordinator will be your main contact and will make the overall arrangements for the get-togethers. As a regular driver you are responsible for the monthly contact with your older guests reminding them of the date and checking that they are coming. The group co-ordinator then confirms the numbers attending to the host.

The Environment Agency is once again looking for volunteers to help keep boating on the Thames running smoothly. Working as part of a team led by professional lock and weir keepers at Boulter's Lock Maidenhead and Romney Lock Windsor volunteers will have the opportunity to spend their days outdoors helping boats through locks and gaining real hands-on experience of lock keeping on the River Thames. We want to work with members of the local community to bring their local knowledge to the lock side. For many working alongside our permanent staff and other volunteers is a really sociable and rewarding activity. As well as helping boats to pass through the lock volunteers can use what they know about the Thames and its surroundings to help us to inform visitors about all it has to offer. Enthusiasm a willingness to learn and a helpful nature are the main attributes we are looking for in our volunteers. Training will be provided for all successful candidates as well as a selection of branded uniform. The Environment Agency will also provide the best opportunities for volunteers to increase their knowledge of the River Thames while building on their passion for the river. Lock volunteers need to be relatively fit as the role involves lots of physical activity especially walking up and down the lock side. A keen interest in river life is also a must and candidates need to be able to offer at least one day per week between May and October. The River Thames is a destination for boating enthusiasts throughout the year but during the summer it becomes the focus of activity for boaters walkers festivals and events especially at weekends. Why not become part of this by becoming a Thames Volunteer Assistant Lock Keeper?

Family Friends: Family Support Volunteer

Contact Tracy Muschamp Telephone 0300 800 1004 Email tracy@family-friends.org.uk

If you are looking for a fulfilling opportunity where you can give back to your local community volunteering for our charity can be a fantastic and beneficial way to start. Our volunteers support families with young often pre-school aged children who are going through a challenging time. Families may require an extra pair of hands to get out of the house with all their children and lack the confidence to do it on their own or they may be experiencing Post Natal Depression and would find some adult company comforting and supportive. Even having a cup of tea and chat on a regular basis with some of our families can make a huge difference to their coping strategies and how they get through the day. We would ask you to offer 2 hours a week to spend with a family plus time travelling to and from their home. Our support is short term so you would not be continually supporting the same family we would work with you to match you to families which you feel confident with.

Maidenhead Festival: Become a Community Champion for the Weekend!

Contact Lisa Hunter Telephone 07876 341334 Email lisajayne22000@yahoo.co.uk

Maidenhead Festival is the biggest regularly organised free public event in Maidenhead and has many benefits for our community including building community spirit and goodwill. It helps to strengthen the charities and other organisations which take part by providing a platform for publicity fund raising and recruitment. During the Festival weekend - 21st 22nd July - we need help to make sure it all runs smoothly. Roles that need filling include: Stall Setup and Break-down: with over 70 stalls and attractions on-site we need an army of people to help us direct stallholders to their pitch to help them unload and ensure the safety of everyone on-site. The phrase - many hands make light work - really does ring true for this activity and it means you get to meet lots of new people in the process! Running the Chair Hire: we hire out chairs to the public to sit on during Festival we need people to help us manage this process. Managing donations: throughout the weekend we carry out bucket collections and ask for donations during the circus shows. We need trustworthy people to help us carry out this task. Litter Pickers: This may not sound like a very glamorous job but it is one that needs doing unfortunately! On the Sunday morning we need to clear up any remnants from the Firework display and do a general litter pick around the park. Whether you or any of your family members and friends can help for a whole day or just an hour any help will be much appreciated.

They require a competent computer literate person to help them with their award winning website - www.drugprevent.org.uk - by uploading the large amount of research material they collect from a wide variety of sources. The volunteer could come at different times or days by arrangement to suit our office needs and their availability week by week. If a person with a disability or their carer or medical practitioner identifies the need for a piece of equipment which no one makes then Remap will. Our service is free to the user. When allocated a job our volunteer will visit the client to understand the problem. He will then return home design and make the aid in his own workshop and give it to the client. The volunteer needs to have the ability and skill to understand a problem and then design and make the solution. The ability to come up with an original concept is vital no one comes to us with a readymade design! It would suit a skilled DIYer model maker or craftsman with a workshop at home. The timing and duration of the work is entirely in the control of the volunteer. Although most of our volunteers are retired some also work full time. This work will appeal to anyone who enjoys solving problems and making things. You will have the satisfaction of using your skills to enable someone to do something that they would not otherwise be able to do. Remap reimburses out of pocket expenses.

Swan Lifeline: Trustee

Contact Ginny James Telephone 10531 821904 Email vljames@onetel.com

Swan Lifeline is a charitable registered organisation No.1156995 that has been rescuing and treating mute swans in the Thames Valley for 30 years. We operate from a purpose-built and recently renovated complex near the river at Eton. In addition to accommodation for a full-time Swan Warden we have a well-equipped hospital unit including examination room and indoor intensive care pens. Outdoors we have six large pens with ponds. In our early days when lead poisoning was a very serious issue along the Thames we were instrumental in encouraging the use of non-lead angling weights. Today's problems for mute swans include dog or fox attacks crash landings water pollution incidents territorial disputes and fishing tackle injuries. The charity relies exclusively on donations from individuals groups trusts companies local authorities etc. and our own fundraising events. There are currently two members of staff and several volunteers that together rescue and look after the swans in care. Swan Lifeline is governed by a deed of trust and management policies. There are currently five trustees handling the various needs of the charity - treasurer fundraiser media and communication and staff matters. The trustee who handles recruitment is about to resign so it would be ideal to recruit someone with human resources interest and or experience. But most important is that someone is interested in helping swans and promoting a healthy environment for swans and other wildlife along the river.

In a galaxy far far away is a gamer who would make a caring reliable and understanding volunteer for our group of young people on the autism spectrum who share a passion for console gaming.

perhaps you enjoy Arts Crafts and would like to share your passion with a young person

If you would like to help a young person with Autism to join in then you would be an ideal volunteer for us.

We run Special Interest Groups for young people on the Autistic Spectrum to offer them opportunities to socialise and to develop their social skills using their shared special interest as a starting point. We have groups based around Arts Crafts Pokemon and Gaming and even one with a mix of all three!

Volunteers help us to make the club enjoyable for participants by providing a calm safe environment with interesting activities.

Volunteers help us to develop the confidence and social skills of the participants by encouraging and supporting them to participate in the activities and have fun.

In practical terms this means helping to set up and pack away a equipment required for the session helping with provision of refreshments and offering support to attendees to participate and have fun even joining in the activities with them if required.

Young Enterprise: Volunteer Business Adviser

Contact Denise Firth Telephone 01865 778 845 Email denise.firth@y-e.org.uk

Could you give support and guide a group of young people setting up a business?

Learning support Mentoring volunteers needed for Young Enterprise

Are you able to support a group of 16-17 year olds as they spend a year setting up their own business?

As a business adviser you would be asked to attend weekly 1 hour board meetings run by the students taking part in the Company Programme. The meetings will be held at the school during the school day throughout the academic year September – June .

wamgetinvolved.org.uk

Real trading companies are created and operated over one academic year by a team of students. The students create a business idea elect a board of directors raise share capital and develop market and sell their product or service within school and to the general public. At the end of the year they then liquidate the company and make decisions about the allocation of any profit.

Through the running of their companies students have the opportunity to acquire practical knowledge of business and to develop important skills that will improve their employability together with providing vital evidence for college or university applications.

Young Enterprise provides a legal framework for each company together with full insurance and free business banking from HSBC. The company is also offered the opportunity to take part in the 'Company of the Year' competition which operates at Area County Regional and National levels from April-June.

Each Young Enterprise Company needs a volunteer business adviser. The main function of the adviser is to act as a mentor to the members of the company by encouraging and supporting the company members. From time to time it may be necessary to instil a sense of urgency raise morale engender team spirit and be a catalyst or play "devil's advocate."

More information about the Company Programme is available at <https://www.young-enterprise.org.uk/what-we-do/secondary-programmes/company-programme> and case studies from volunteers are available at <https://www.young-enterprise.org.uk/support-us/volunteer>
